SMSGt Deborah Frances Stempin, ART, 315th AW Personnel Records Section, passed on the evening of 28 May 2018 at the age of 67 and surrounded by her family. Debbie had a long term bout of multiple sclerosis. She was preceded in death by her husband of 32 years, Chief Master Sergeant Leonard "Len" Stempin, 315th AW Senior Enlisted Advisor. Some of Debbie's closest 315th AW friends were Barbara Pack & her co-worker Marty Davis (now Marty Druschel) next door in the pay section, and Dee across the hall, secretary to the personnel officer and Brenda of personnel records and DPMU.

Debbie's other friends were her four legged ones. I remember when we fed and took care of them when she and Len were vacationing. Debbie was an animal lover and avid supporter of local and national humane societies. She will be greatly missed by her four-legged companion Gidget.

The family will have a Celebration and Life and Inurement at the Beaufort National Cemetery where Debbie and Len will both receive full military honors. The date has not yet been determined.

Shirley is survived by her spouse Fred Watts of Ft Lauderdale and her son Robert “Bobby” Watts of Charleston, SC. I notified everyone in the 15 July 2016 newsletter about Shirley’s passing but no specifics were available at that time. I talked to Bobby yesterday and he filled us in. Shirley and Fred have been living on their boat, “The Shirley B.,” at Ft Lauderdale for the past 26 years, ever since she retired. I’m sure many of you still remember how excited Shirley was telling all of us about the good life her and Fred would be living on their boat. They certainly did exactly that and we stayed in contact with them, sending them the newsletters to their P. O. Box and keeping them in the loop with us. It all came to an end back in June when Shirley started having great discomfort on the boat and the EMS was called. They took Shirley off the boat and placed her in the ambulance but she didn’t make it. Bobby said no obituary ran in the Charleston newspaper as they lived in Ft Lauderdale. Since Shirley handled all our personnel records back when we had about 3,400 assigned to the Wing. She knew many of us personally. The last time I seen Shirley was about two years ago when she was here in Charleston visiting family and I met her in the shopping mall. She had a great looking tan, was all trim and slim and telling about all the good times she was having down in Florida MSgt Bradley “Brad” Baird passed in Wilmington SC.
